

Landscaped entrance

The architecturally landscaped Goulburn Valley Highway entrance provides an attractive and practical barrier to shield the estate from excess traffic noise, featuring a gabion retaining wall with protruding timber entrance sculpture.

Proposed Grass Mound

Sculptured and graded in a contemporary style

Gabion retaining wall with protruding timber entrance sculpture

Dense planting of deciduous foliage at entry

Indigenous planting on grass mounding